Book VII

The Descendants of Antonio Izzi

Compiled by

John Vincent Casciato
(With the help of many, many family members!)

Introduction

Early in 1996, at a family gathering, I became aware that I frequently could not explain to my daughter her relationship to many of those present (and those who were not but of whom we were gossiping!) The lines between family and friend, cousin and paesano had become fuzzy. Even though I had grown up surrounded by these people, I was unsure of many relationships. Hence my quest for family information. To date I have added over 1000 members to my database and would appreciate any help anyone could give me in filling in the outline.

Surnames for which I need additional information include: Falasca, Carano, Silvestri, DiIorio, DeFalco, Riccilli, Tisone, Bishotti, (do you see a pattern of Italian surnames developing here?), Izzi, Mastroianni, Labate , Gizzi and of course, Casciato.

The folks from Italy hail from the following cities/towns/villages/provinces: Caroville Campobasso (Carano, DiIorio, Silvestri) ; Pescocostanzo, Provincia L'Aquila, Abruzzi (Casciato); San Pietro, Avellana (Mastroianni); Catanzaro, Provincia Reggio, Calabria (Zito)

A note on the spelling of "Mastroianni." I have several sources listing various spellings. For the most part, I have used the most common spelling, that is, "Mastroianni." Be assured that I have a reference fore each "Mastroianni" listed, regardless of the spelling.

I owe a debt of gratitude to our recently discovered cousin Amilio Casciato who provided the information that linked our two families through eight generations.

I hope some of this information may be of help in your research!

John Vincent Casciato

Dedication

This book is dedicated to my daughter, Heather Rose Casciato, whose questions started me on my quest for family information.

Preface

While my name is on the title page, this is a collaborative work. I actually contributed very little. My function was to gather together information from various family sources.

Little of the information found here would have been available to me had not my mother, Mary (Carano) Casciato, been a collector of family memorabilia. Her collection of mass cards, funeral notices, wedding and birth announcements, address books and various newspaper articles provided many of the names, dates and relationships found in this work. Her recollections and explanations of complex family relationships, especially relating to the DiIorio-Silvertri line were invaluable. Thank you mom, I love you and miss you!

Much of the information about the Mastroianni family was collected by Carol Hamilton. Without her work it would have been extremely difficult to pull that family's information together.

My "newly found" cousin, Amilio Casciato, provided not only the information on the descendants of Dionisio Casciato but also discovered the link between Dionisio's descendants and the descendants of Vincenzo Casciato. I've called that link Ancestor Casciato and some day I hope to discover his name.

Many family members have provided me with information and explanations. Over the years I've received cards, phone calls and emails from many of you. I thank all of you for the information (and corrections) that you provided.

Finally, a special thank you to my father, John Lewis Casciato. His assistance in translating old letters and notes written in Italian and assistance in gathering information, and pointing out my mistakes was invaluable. Love you and miss you Dad!

Antonio Izzi

Antonio Izzi was my great, great grandfather on my father's side. Antonio's daughter Anna Maria Izzi married Pasquale Mastroianni, joining the Izzy and Mastroianni lines.

Pasquale Mastroianni's family line can be seen in the book Famiglia Casciato The Descendants of Sabatino Mastroianni.

From "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" written by Carol Z. Hamilton.

Notes for Nunziati Bishotti:

According to "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" written by Carol Z. Hamilton, Antonio Izzy and Nunziata Bishotti were from the village of Vasto Girardi, located south of Rome in Italy. In addition to four daughters, they had twin boys who died at birth.

Antonio Izzi and Nunziati Bishotti had the following children:

Notes for Rafaele Colucci:

According to "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" written by Carol Z. Hamilton, Rafaele "...was a personable, multitalented man. Without benefit of a degree in dentistry he accommodated anybody or everybody who needed dental care; repaired watches; designed gold ornaments for the Madonna Della Grazia Church in his village; sang in the choir (he had a beautiful voice), and, among other things, invented what was possibly the first coffee maker. It was designed much like a steam engine, with a spigot for pouring at one end and a whistle that blew loudly when the coffee was ready. He delighted friends and relatives in his private 'station casino' with this clever invention. ... Unfortunately Rafaele died of a venomous bee sting while in his garden."

Generation 2 (con't)

Notes for Anna Maria Izzi:

According to "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" written by Carol Z. Hamilton, while her husband was in America, Anna Maria took care of her children, her husband's parents, their land and property, assisted the village doctor delivering babies (midwife), taught children to read and write and girls to sew, crochet and embroider. "She was affectionately called 'La Maestra'."

"When Sabatino and Marianna passed on she became the sole heiress of their worldly belongings."

When her son Francesco wrote that he was staying in America Anna Maria "...sold her property and personal belongings at great sacrifice and sailed to this country with her two daughters."

In America she worked as a midwife at the request of Dr. Daniele, the family doctor. She traveled by foot and charged $2.00 for the delivery of a boy and $1.00 for the delivery of a girl.

St. Anthony was her patron saint.

Anna Maria, became an important part of her daughter Marianina's life following the death of Marianina's second husband Joseph Libery. While Marianina worked to support her family, her mother took charge of the children, prepared meals and still continued with her work of delivering babies."

Notes for Pasquale Mastroianni:

According to "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" by Carol Z. Hamilton, Pasquale Mastroianni was from San Pietro Italy. Location of birth unknown. "Like most young men in his village, Pasquale Mastroianni could not find enough work to support his family. He then left for America and found work in stone quarries of West Virginia where he joined his 'paesanos'." He was gone for 10 yrs. before returning to Italy.

Pasquale Mastroianni and Anna Maria Izzi had the following children:

According to Carol Z. Hamilton's research, Vincent Casciato had two sisters.

According to the Vincent Casciato's obituary in the Youngstown Vindicator (newspaper), "Mr. Casciato was born in Pescocostanzo, Aquila, Italy, June 5, 1882, and came to Youngstown in 1900. He owned and operated a tailor shop on E. Federal Street, where he made men's suits for about 30 years and later worked as a tailor for Strouss-Hershberg Co. store 15 years. He moved to California in 1948 and had worked as a tailor there until his death. He was a founder and past president of the Duca Degli Abruzzi Society here."

He had seven grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

NOTE: There is some ambiguity in the spelling of "Pesco Costanzo". The front of a postcard from Italy, sent by "Mother Casciato" (Angelina Mastroianni), has the text "PESCOCOSTANZO (L'Aquila) m. 1400 s.m. on the front. In June 1997 John Vincent Casciato and his family traveled to Italy and confirmed the spelling as PESCOCOSTANZO".

Colucci, Rafaele ()

Person Note:

According to "Roots and Recollections of Anna Maria Mastroianni" written by Carol Z. Hamilton, Rafaele "...was a personable, multitalented man. Without benefit of a degree in dentistry he accommodated anybody or everybody who needed dental care; repaired watches; designed gold ornaments for the Madonna Della Grazia Church in his village; sang in the choir (he had a beautiful voice), and, among other things, invented what was possibly the first coffee maker. It was designed much like a steam engine, with a spigot for pouring at one end and a whistle that blew loudly when the coffee was ready. He delighted friends and relatives in his private 'station casino' with this clever invention. ... Unfortunately Rafaele died of a venomous bee sting while in his garden."
