

—ABC Portraits

Mrs. George Djisheff

Carol Carano

Sunday Bride

The marriage of Miss Carol Ann Carano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic J. Carano, 2020 John White Road, Hubbard, and George Djisheff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dimitri Djisheff, 509 Clyde St., was solemnized at an afternoon wedding Sunday in Holy Ghost Church, the Rev. Kiril Antonoff officiating.

In the processional were Mrs. Michael Dimoff, matron of honor, Miss Peggy Kelly, Miss Sandra Djisheff and Miss Florie Mladenoff, bridesmaids, and Elaine Djisheff, the bridegroom's sister, flower girl. Mr. Dimoff was best man, Donald Kelly, Eli Mladenoff and Walter Wagner ushered and Danny Dentscheff was ringbearer.

The bride wore a gown of white organza trimmed with pearls and having a chapel train. A lace and pearl crown held her veil and she carried a crescent of white roses, carnations and huckleberry. Sheath dresses of pink chiffon and lace with veiled crowns to match were the costumes of her attendants. Mrs. Dimoff carried mint green and white carnations and pompons while the flowers of the bridesmaids and flower girl were in other pastel hues.

After a reception at Coitsville Township Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Djisheff left for Canada. They will live in Dover, Ohio, where the bridegroom is a department manager with Harty Department Store. The bride has been employed by Eduardo's Hair Fashions.