

Miss Kennell

(Continued from Page C-1)
nam. Later, he was the intelligence operations officer for the First Armored Division at Ft. Hood, Texas. At the present time, he is a cost analyst for Republic Steel Corp. in Warren, Ohio.

Society Theaters

971

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

TY

Miss Judith Ann Kennell

—Ricci

Miss Kennell To Be Bride In November

Mrs. Julie L. Kennell, 80 Prestwick Drive, Boardman, announces the engagement and coming marriage of her daughter, Miss Judith Ann Kennell, to Ronald Francis Caruso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Caruso of 1222 Oak St.

The ceremony will take place Nov. 27 at 1 p.m. in St. Dominic Church and a reception will follow at the Hotel Ohio.

Miss Kennell graduated from Ohio University where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. As a member of Children's International Summer Villages, she represented the United States at a peace camp in Burgenland, Austria, and last year directed a C.I.S.V. Camp in Youngstown. Miss Kennell is presently teaching third grade at Market Street School in Boardman.

Her fiance is a graduate of Ohio University where he played varsity football and was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. Mr. Caruso graduated from Infantry Officer Candidate School and served as an adviser in Viet-
(Continued on Page C-13)