

Kennell-Caruso Are Wed in St. Dominic's

Mrs. Ronald F. Caruso

Miss Judith Ann Kennell, daughter of Mrs. Julie Kennell, 80 Prestwick Dr. and the late Christian Raber Kennell, was given in marriage by her godfather and uncle, Attorney Frank Mastriana. The groom, Ronald F. Caruso, 4525 New Hampshire Ct., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Caruso of 1222 Oak St.

The folk mass was held 1:00 p.m. Saturday at St. Dominic's Church where Father James Muller performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of ivory peau-de-soie with an empire waist, high fitted neckline, bibbed bodice, and Victorian sleeve, all embroidered in Brussels Alenceon lace etched with scattered seed pearls. The long train and hem of the dress were emblazoned with embroidered Brussels lace and seed pearls.

Her veil was ivory illusion attached to a camelot headpiece embroidered in the same Alenceon lace and seed pearls as her gown. She carried a bouquet composed of white roses, stephanotis, and purple status.

Mrs. Dennis Tennant, a roommate and sorority sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown with a cluny lace bodice and a full drindl skirt in shades of ivory, lilac, and deep purple.

Bridesmaids were Lynne Mastriana, Ruth Mastriana (junior bridesmaid), Denise DeBartolo, all cousins of the bride and Mrs. Roger Elias. The bridesmaids were attired in gowns similar to that of the matron of honor. All carried colonial bouquets of purple status and sweetheart roses.

Best man for his brother was Joseph Caruso. Ushers were Joseph LoCiero, Ronald Mastriana, a cousin of the bride, and Jack Schrom.

The bride is a graduate of Ohio University where she was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She is now teaching at Market St. School in Boardman.

The groom is also a graduate of Ohio University where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. He also graduated from Infantry Officer Candidate School and served as an adviser in Vietnam where he was awarded the Bronze Star. He is now a cost analyst for Republic Steel Corp. in Warren.

After a wedding trip to New York and Washington D.C. the couple will live at 4522 Nantucket Dr.
