

Miss Carano, A. P. Nerone Pledge Vows

Miss Lucy Carano and Albert P. Nerone were married at a beautiful wedding on Saturday morning, July 22, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Rev. Vito Franco celebrated the nuptial mass and the bride's cousin, Miss Josephine Conti, and Albert Fabrizio were honor maid and best man. Summer flowers in candlelight decorated the altar.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Carano, 317 S. Forest Ave., is secretary to Dr. Enrico DiIorio. Mr. Nerone is with General Fireproofing Co. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Nerone, 936 Oak St. The young people are graduates of East High School.

With her gown of white mouseline de soie, having a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline finished with self-ruching, bracelet sleeves and full skirt with long train, the bride wore a fingertip veil of illusion arranged with a Dutch cap of lace. She carried a white prayer book adorned with a cluster of gardenias and white baby mums and wore the bridegroom's gift, a pearl necklace. Mr. Carano gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Conti, gowned in dusty rose chiffon over taffeta, wore a floral tiara to match her bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Carano, in navy crepe and chiffon, had a corsage of red roses and Mrs. Nerone also wore red roses with her blue and white summer print.

The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Fred Dellarco, New Castle Road. In the evening, there was a dinner for relatives followed by a reception at the bride's home.

Traveling when the couple left for a trip in the East, the bride wore a two-piece yellow costume with brown and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride's gift to her sister was a pearl rosary. Mr. Nerone gave his best man gold cuff links.
