

SOCIAL

Copyright 1985, The Vindicator Printing Co.

Aug. 1985
SUNDAY, A

Mrs. Henry D. DiRienzo
(Ruth Mastriana)

Ruth Mastriana, Henry DiRienzo are wed at summer evening Mass

Summer greenery and arrangements of white gladioluses, chrysanthemums and baby's breath enhanced the candlelit sanctuary of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church for the early evening wedding on Saturday, Aug. 3, of Ruth Eileen Mastriana, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Frank A. Mastriana, Devonshire, Boardman, and Henry David DiRienzo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry DiRienzo of Canfield.

The Rev. Joseph Iati was celebrant for the nuptial Mass, and there was a reception and dinner afterward for 200 guests at the Tippecanoe Country Club. Tables seating 10 were appointed in dusty rose and centered with tiered bouquets of pink daisies and lilies. Similar flowers arranged in six tiers and dusty rose votive candles were centerpieces on the bridal table in the main lounge.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the designer wedding gown of her sister and matron of honor, Mrs. Michael (Lynne) Christiansen. It was fashioned in the renaissance style of Christian Dior lace embellished with seed pearls and had a chapel-length train. Her veil of double silk illusion was gathered to a beaded circlet headdress, and her flowers were a cascade of orchids, stephanotis and ivy arranged on a prayerbook belonging to her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Dominic Montani, and also carried by her mother and sister at their weddings.

Attired in gowns of dusty rose moire and holding arm bouquets of pink daisies, lilies, baby's breath and summer greenery were Mrs. Christiansen and the bridesmaids, Mrs. John York, a cousin of the bride; Mrs. F. Ronald Mastriana, the bride's sister-in-law; and Lori Comeau.

The groom's best man was Henry Diorio and ushers included the bride's brother-in-law, Atty. Michael Eric Christiansen; her brother, Atty. F. Ronald Mastriana; and the groom's brother, Kenneth DiRienzo.

Also in the wedding party were the bride's niece and nephew, Gina Ruth Christiansen and R. Brian Mastriana. Gina wore a frock of Swiss organdy sashed in dusty rose and had a circlet of baby's breath and ribbon streamers in her hair.

The bride and groom have delayed their planned trip to Italy and Switzerland and went to Nantucket Island for their honeymoon. They will live in Boardman.

Mrs. DiRienzo, a social worker with the Northeast Ohio Adoption Services, was graduated from St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind. with a bachelor of arts degree and received her master's in social work from the University of Pittsburgh.

The groom has a degree in architecture from Kent State University and is an architect and real estate developer with the DiRienzo Corp. in Boardman.