

Silver Year Best Wishes Shower Pair

When Mr. and Mrs. Louis Morelli, 232 Argonne Ave., celebrated their silver wedding anniversary recently it was the signal for more than 150 of their friends and relatives to gather around and shower the happy pair with best wishes.

The party, a buffet supper, was given for the Morellis by their son, Louis Morelli Jr., by the honoree's sister, Mrs. John Paschia of Youngstown, Ohio and by her aunt, Mrs. Dominic Ludovico of Ellwood City, Pa. Another son of the honored couple, Anthony, sent his congratulations from his Army post in Germany.

For the festive affair party host and hostesses used fragrant bouquets throughout the home of carnations, gladioli, white roses and snapdragons.

As she received the well wishes of her friends Mrs. Morelli was gowned in a rose nylon lace dress and at her shoulder wore a corsage of white carnations, gift of her husband.

Special guests of the day were Mrs. Rose Morelli, mother of the 25-year-old bridegroom and Mrs. Phillip Famularo of this city who was maid of honor at the wedding.

Out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Labate and family of Youngstown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Casciato of Alhambra; John Salvatore and family of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Jacobucci and Mr. and Mrs. A. Jacobucci of Burbank; Mr. and Mrs. John Wakefield of Garden Grove; Mrs. and Mrs. B. Hornbuckle of Torrance; Mrs. Adele Frazzini and Leo Pesiati of Burbank.

Among others bidden to the party were Mrs. Jean Tapi of Lakewood, another sister of the honoree, Mr. and Mrs. Marco Frazzini and Mr. and Mrs. John Batista of Long Beach who were all present at the Morelli's wedding Sept. 1, 1930 in Youngstown, Ohio.

GAY RED AND WHITE checked tablecloths will be used on tables placed around the pool at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bogdanovich, Rolling Hills, when they open their home Saturday for an informal "get acquainted" party for St. Mary's Hospital Guild members and husbands. Swimming and cocktails will precede a delicious picnic supper, with music and dancing later in the evening. Eagerly previewing some luscious roast above are the hostess and her assistants, from left, Mrs. Ralph Caner, William A. Kirk Jr., Mrs. Bogdanovich and Mrs. Jackson Mense.—(Staff photo.)

FIRST IN A SERIES of colorful events slated by the Women's Committee of the American Institute of Banking, Harbor District chapter, will be a kick-off brunch and fashion show Saturday to be given in the Supper Room of the Lafayette Hotel under direction of Wilma Hastings. Making on-the-scene final plans are, pictured from left, David Tallichet, hotel manager; Tommy Noh, catering manager, and AIB members Marjorie D. Knox, chairman of the Women's Committee, and Bernadine Lane, vice chairman. It is expected 350 women from the 51 banks which form the Harbor District will attend the always smart function.—(Staff.)

Vows Taken in Las Vegas

In a quiet ceremony, impressive through its simplicity, Lucille A. Fletcher and Guy V. Brown recently exchanged wedding vows in the West Kirk of the Heather Wedding Chapel in Las Vegas, Nev.

Nuptial lines for the double ring ceremony were read by Rev. Thomas J. Daly in the desert city.

After a few days in Las Vegas the newlyweds left on a two-

Summer Fun, Fall Projects Keep Ebell Juniors Busy

Busy Ebell Juniors, reluctant to say goodbye to pleasant summer days, yet eagerly anticipating the active club year ahead, are caught between vacation fever and the planning of various club projects.

Among those members readying plans for forthcoming activities are decoration committee women who met recently at a coffee hour in the home of Bob Popper, 3 64th Pl., to finalize preparations for the coming Friendship Tea. Marge Quinn conducted the meeting, at which Dorothy Grant, Phyllis Buchanan, Anne Seufert, Betty Dykstra, Ellen Shiska, Bertie Zanero and Georgene Delfs were present.

Also discussing the Friendship Tea and the approaching Halloween Dance was the public relations committee, headed by Joyce Dixon, which met Monday evening at the home of Barbara Wynn, 2348 Marwick Ave. The group is in charge of the October dance.

Ebellers are still planning for going on, or recovering from their vacations, according to Jean Gray, publicity chairman for Ebell Juniors.

Fond memories of carefree travel days linger with many of the club's members, as with Mr. and Mrs. Les Worden who just returned from a wonderful three-week trip. Included in their full itinerary were water skiing on the Colorado River at Empy several days near Prescott, Ariz.; a visit to relatives and a view of Indian Squaw Dances in Gallup, N. M.; a few days at the Grand Canyon and Lake Mohave Resort, then to Tulare for a brief stay with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Gester and family camped out on Marion Mountain near Idyllwild—until they were rained out and scurried for home.

Lake Tahoe beckoned Mr. and Mrs. Bob Delfs, and Yosemite called to Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Jenkins, while Mr. and Mrs. Sid Peizer with their children Nancy and Tommy headed south for Tijuana.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seufert and daughter Diana vacationed at Laguna, where they enjoyed, among other activities, the Art Festival.

Swimming and fishing were the main orders of the day for Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCutcheon and their four children during the family's stay at Three Rivers, while Mr. and Mrs. Lee Meenzhuber, with their children, did much of the same at Lake Arrowhead.

Motoring to Oregon to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stowers and two children

Marilyn Swaffield Given Bridal Gifts

Pseudo white doves perched jauntily in their flower filled bird cages suspended above the beautifully appointed buffet table, set in silver, pink and white, when Miss Marilyn Lee Swaffield was honored at a bridal shower last Sunday given for her by Mrs. Robert M. Swaffield of San Gabriel at the Park Estates home of the John R. Brennans.

The many guests bidden to fete the charming bride-elect of Larry Hale Havens were served from delicate crystal which had belonged to the bride's mother. Miss Swaffield is the daughter of the late Mrs. Bess Murphy Swaffield. She and her fiance will speak their wedding lines Sunday in Christ Chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Guest list for the lovely courtesy included the bride's aunts, Mrs. Roland G. Swaffield of Rolling Hills and Mrs. Everett W. Swezey of Long Beach, the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Bill A. Havens of Long Beach and his sisters, Mrs. Tommie Ellis of Barstow and Mrs. Raymond Lucas of Winslow, Ariz.

Others bidden from Long Beach were Mrs. Frances Able, George E. Atkinson Jr., John A. Breen Jr., Robert Covey, Marlow Earle, Mortimer Hall, Zeta Kempton, Elizabeth Nickerson, Kelly Williams and Brennan as well as Misses Beverly Burman, Ruth Miller, Louise Parklis and Mrs. Grace Rattray and Miss Gail Rattray, cousins of the bride-elect.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Richard Cooling of Reseda, Mrs. Robert Hacker of Santa Paula, Mrs. Spencer E. Hill of Garden Grove and Mrs. Harry Pearson of Anaheim.
