Georgette Morgan music leader

Thank you for gathering in honor of Eugene Baker, our father, brother, husband, friend, neighbor and more. As an engineer with imagination, he solved problems with creativity. He was dedicated to the neighborhood and volunteered in the schools. He always brought bit of Mary Poppins magic, happening to have just the sort of container or tool you needed. He told stories, embellishing with fun detail and building up suspense. He observed life, noticing changes and things that needed attention. He shared enthusiasm for the world and found blessings in unexpected places and god's presence in the people around him. He responded with counsel and advice when asked, and love always. And he always had dreams.
