

Vincent Cioffi

ALBANY — Funeral services for Vincent Cioffi, 94, who died Thursday in a Richmond hospital, will begin at 11:30 a.m. Monday in the chapel of Sunset View Mortuary, Berkeley.

A native of Italy and a longtime resident of the Berkeley-Albany area who last lived in Albany, Mr. Cioffi had been employed for 40 years as a tailor at Emporium Department Stores.

Survivors include two sons, Darwin of Albany and Felix Cioffi of Lynwood and two daughters, Alma Coggins of Albany and Josephine Borsi of Campbell, Calif. There are six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Earl Grote will officiate in funeral services and interment will be at Sunset View Cemetery in Berkeley. The family suggests memorial donations to favorite charities.
